The Director of Central Intelligence

Intelligence Research and Development Council

7 April 1982

MEMORANDUM FOR: Dr. Richard D. DeLauer
Chairman

FROM: [REDACTED]
Executive Secretary

SUBJECT: IR&DC Update

Duk -

For your information, the following outlines several Council activities which have transpired while you have been in Europe.

a. New Council Directive with Membership Listing

The DCI has approved our new IR&DC Directive and has also signed a memo which lists the current Council membership. I have distributed these documents to all Council participants. (Attachment A) Note: The memo and directive are back dated. [REDACTED]

b. Attendance at Future Council Meetings

As you may recall when we spoke before you left on your trip, I noted that we seem to be getting quite a lot of horse holders at our Council meetings, and I suggested that we somewhat decrease attendance. Consequently, I have drafted a memo to Council members which states that at future meetings attendance would be limited to one principal from each organization. I had expected to get some flack from some of the members, but except for a few small bleats from a few of the staffers, I have not heard any major objections. This will mean that at our next meeting (probably in May), that we will have about [REDACTED] in the room vice the current [REDACTED] (Attachment B) I have also urged principals to attend.
